

The Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) Title III requires that each local education agency submit a Title III application to receive federal funds. The federal funds are used to provide instructional activities and services to help English Language Learners meet high standards. A public meeting will be held October 9, 2018, at the Washington County Board of Education at 5:00 p.m. to share information with the public concerning the programs and give participants an opportunity to provide input for planning and implementation. Also, the “No Child Left Behind” Title III application is open to public review and for comments on October 11, 2018, at 5 pm. The location of this meeting is at Central Office in the Conference Room with Felisha Daniels located at Washington County Board of Education, 802 Washington Street, Plymouth, North Carolina.
